

International Side Saddle Organization

Information – Education - Inspiration

ISSO offers clinics, year-end awards (including youth and non-competitive activity awards), online forums, quarterly magazine, networking, Miles Aside trail mileage program, instructor certification, and information on show regulations. Our members ride all disciplines from Grand Prix dressage to recreational trail rides. ISSO also operates The Side Saddlery, a shop devoted to filling all your side saddle needs - even that elusive perfect saddle!

As an educational non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, ISSO's mission is to educate about side saddle riding.

Our audience includes riders, breed organizations, youth groups, authors, historians, and people from all walks of life. Your membership directly connects you with other aside riders, while helping ISSO spread the joy of sidesaddle.

Best of all, our members have found many new friends with a common interest.
